

Department of Sustainable Development
Organization of American States
1889 F Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

Suite 715
Phone: +(202) 458-6914
Fax: +(202) 458-3560
cdewindt@oas.org

Claudia S. de Windt
Legal Specialist

A Lawyer graduated from Universidad Iberoamericana (UNIBE) in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic with a Master of Laws in International Legal Studies from American University Washington College of Law. Ms. de Windt has been with the OAS since 2001, as Legal Specialist for the Office for Sustainable Development and Environment. She coordinates a program on environmental law policy and economics as well as the activities of the Office's Inter-American Forum on Environmental Law. Her work mainly focuses on the environmental sustainability of free trade agreements; supporting member States identify the challenges and opportunities for sustainable development derived from economic integration. In addition to supporting the strengthening of institutional-legal frameworks in the hemisphere towards sustainability in trade. Ms. de Windt has experience in legal drafting and international development cooperation projects in different areas, such as international project financing, foreign investment, environmental law and environmental corporate social responsibility.

Prior to coming to OAS, Ms. de Windt was an Associate Attorney for the firm Headrick Rizik Alvarez & Fernández in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, where she worked as Counsel for International and local organizations mainly in the areas of contracts, banking, maritime, corporate and investment Law. She was appointed in 1999, by the President of the Dominican Republic as Judicial Interpreter of The Court of First Instance of Santo Domingo. Ms. de Windt is admitted to practice in the Dominican Republic and a member of the Dominican Bar Association. She also served as Vice-President of the LL.M student association at the Washington College of Law in 2000. Languages: native language is Spanish, she is also fluent in English and has working knowledge of French and Portuguese.